Applicant Statement

I authorize inquiries of any person, educational institution or organization to give or to verify information pertinent to my application for the affiliate program at the Software Engineering Institute of Carnegie Mellon University. I understand and agree that this application and other submissions become the property of the university and that any false statements or any false answers on this application form or any supplements thereto or in any interviews may result in cancellation of my application or in immediate dismissal from the affiliate program. I further understand that all offers of participation in the affiliate program must be confirmed by the university in writing and are conditioned upon execution of the applicable affiliate program agreement(s). I agree to return any university property upon termination of my participation in the affiliate program; and to comply with all rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the university. This form is executed with the intention to be legally bound.

Carnegie Mellon University does not discriminate and Carnegie Mellon University is required not to discriminate in admission, employment, or administration of its programs or activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex or handicap in violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or other federal, state, or local laws or executive orders. In addition, Carnegie Mellon University does not discriminate in admission, employment or administration of its programs on the basis of religion, creed, ancestry, belief, age, veteran status, sexual orientation or in violation of federal, state, or local laws or executive orders. However, in the judgment of the Carnegie Mellon Human Relations Commission, the Department of Defense policy of, "Don't ask, don't tell, don't pursue," excludes openly gay, lesbian and bisexual students from receiving ROTC scholarships or serving in the military. Nevertheless, all ROTC classes at Carnegie Mellon University are available to all students.
